

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Contact: Hugh Miller
hugh.miller@hollyrockmiller.com

Maselli Warren Adds Felicity Hanks As Associate

The law firm of Maselli Warren, PC, is pleased to welcome Felicity Hanks as an associate in their Princeton office. Felicity will focus her practice on matters of general litigation.

According to Maselli Warren founding partner Paul Maselli, “We are proud to welcome Felicity to our growing group of talented associates. She is uniquely qualified, well rounded, and we expect to attract a number of Environmental Law matters to the firm now that Felicity is on our team.”

Ms. Hanks earned her undergraduate degree from Brandeis University in Waltham, Massachusetts where she majored in Economics with a certificate in Environmental Studies. She was also a four-year letter winner on their varsity softball team. In 2008, she graduated from University of Pittsburgh Law School where she focused on litigation and environmental law studies.

Prior to joining Maselli Warren, Felicity served as Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable C. Theodore Fritsch, Jr., Administrative Judge of the Orphans’ Court Division of the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County, Pennsylvania. While clerking, Felicity handled a variety of civil, criminal, and zoning matters. Much of her work centered on orphans’ court litigation, including estate matters, will contests, adoptions and guardianships.

Ms. Hanks resides in Yardley, Pennsylvania where she is a member of the Bucks County Bar Association and the Bucks County Inns of Court. Felicity also sits on the Lower Makefield Township Youth Aid Panel.

Maselli Warren, PC has offices in Princeton, New Jersey, Hamilton, New Jersey and Newtown, Pennsylvania.

###