

Press
Release

For Immediate Release

Contact: Paul Maselli, 609-452-8411 ext 102

(Newtown, PA) January 20, 2009 The law firm of Maselli Warren, P.C. is pleased to announce that Brian A. Mills, Esquire has become a shareholder of the firm. Mr. Mills will continue to focus his practice in the areas of Corporate and Business Law, Commercial Real Estate and Business Transactions while managing the firm's Pennsylvania practice.

Managing Shareholder Perry S. Warren commented, "Brian is the first new shareholder in the firm's eleven year history. He joined us out of law school and has developed a strong reputation in the Eastern Pennsylvania and Central Jersey business communities." Senior Shareholder Paul Maselli adds, "Brian's efforts have been integral to the growth of our Pennsylvania practice. In addition, he has shown leadership in the professional development of associate attorneys."

Brian is a graduate of LaSalle University and Rutgers University School of Law. He and his wife Joanne reside in Newtown, Pennsylvania, are the parents of one daughter and are expecting twins in the Spring of 2009.

Maselli Warren, P.C. has offices in Newtown, Pennsylvania, Princeton, New Jersey and Hamilton, New Jersey.

-End-